URGENT CIRCULAR: MANDATORY PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

Dear Parents,

We held a vital meeting for Class 7 on 28th January, 2026, at 1:30 pm to discuss the discipline and moral guidance of our students based on various observations. We would like to express our sincere appreciation to the parents who attended the meeting. Their seriousness and active willingness to contribute to their children's well-being were truly commendable. We firmly believe that for our children to navigate the right path, parents and teachers must work shoulder to shoulder.

Those who were unable to attend missed a profound session where parents shared personal experiences, challenges, and success stories. These insights are invaluable in shaping a supportive environment for our young generation.

Mandatory Rescheduled Meeting

Because the matters discussed dealt with the holistic development of a child, your presence is now required at a follow-up session as requested by the parents present in the first session held on 28th January, 2026.

Date: Saturday, January 31, 2026	Time: 1:30 PM	Class: VII A, B, C

Attendance: Compulsory (Parents must attend along with their children)

Parents are required to provide an undertaking that they shall not record, in any form, the discussions held between parents and teachers, as these discussions are intended to remain strictly confidential and are conducted solely to deliberate on corrective and supportive measures for the student.

Parents further undertake that the information discussed during such meetings shall not be shared, circulated, or disclosed to any third party whatsoever, except to their spouse, if required.

It is also earnestly requested that certain matters discussed during these meetings not be shared with students, especially when such issues have already been addressed and resolved in the classroom. Reintroduction of these matters often leads to unnecessary repetition, misunderstanding, and disruption, thereby making it difficult for teachers to effectively manage the class while simultaneously focusing on lesson preparation and completion.

Your cooperation in maintaining confidentiality and supporting a constructive academic environment is highly appreciated.

We look forward to your wholehearted cooperation and presence.

Thank you,
